PROHIBITION IN TENNESSEE.

(To the Editor of the Courier-Journal.) Murfreesboro, Tenn., March 14.—I am a native Kentuckian. I am at present a traveling salesman in Tennessee for a New York house.

I want to endorse your editorial in today's Courier-Journal, entitled "Have They Ever Thought?"

Prohibitionists don't think. Truly, Nashville is as dead as the desert of Gobi, in a business sense. Prohibition has simply ruined Tennessee. Taxes in Tennessee are twice as high as in Kentucky. Do the people of Kentucky want to double their taxes, run millions of dollars annually out of the State and still make the people more impecunious than they now are? Prohibition only lowers the quality and raises the price and makes hypocrites out of the people. Yours, S. A. CARY.

Supt. C. L. Rosenham of the Western & Southern Life Insurance Company continues ill at his home on West Fourth street.

There is a strong sentiment throughout the Ninth District in favor of Judge Hazelrigg, of Mt. Sterling, for Congress, at the approaching August primary. He is the present County Judge, of Montgomery, a forceful speaker, and one of the strongest Democrats in the District, a relative of Judge Hazelrigg, former Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

BIG ANIMAL FEATURE AT THE GEM TOMORROW.

The Gem has secured as a feature tomorrow, "Thor, Lord of the Jungles," a romance in the wilds and under the big white tents. A feature production taken at the Selig Zoo with popular Kathryn Williams in the star role. A thrilling story of two continents, sweeping from the primeval jungles of wild Africa to the busy haunts of men and the crowds under the white tents. A big sentimental story with remarkable adventures with savage beasts. Something vivid, vital, unique and vastly attractive. One of the biggest and best animal pictures ever shown in this city. Equal to any circus. Prepare to see it. No advance in the admission.

Farmers

Have you ever tried our way of borrowing money to pay for a farm?

You, of course, know that most farms are sold for one-third cash and the balance of the payment is represented by lien notes due in one and two years.

You also know that there are times when it is impossible to pay these notes when they become due.

Our specialty is lending money on good farms for LONG PERIODS. Wouldn't you rather have five years to pay the balance than two years?

Any one expecting to buy farms this March will do well to come in and consult us about getting the money.

We have been giving satisfactory service for 24 years.
